

TAILOR KHAY

Frequently Asked Questions

Answers to the questions we get asked most often.

Q: How long does it take to complete an order?

A: Standard turnaround is 7 days from the date your measurements are taken and your deposit is received. If you need it sooner than 7 days, that's treated as a rush order and attracts an extra fee.

Q: Do I need to pay a deposit?

A: Yes. A 50% deposit is required before we begin cutting or sewing your order. The balance is due before or on the day of collection/delivery.

Q: Can I supply my own fabric?

A: Absolutely. You're welcome to bring your own fabric, or we can source it for you for a 10% sourcing fee.

Q: How many fittings do I get?

A: Every order includes one fitting session. Bridal orders include two fittings plus a final trial before the event.

Q: What if the outfit doesn't fit properly?

A: If it's a tailoring error, we'll fix it for free, as long as you let us know within 7 days of collection.

Q: Can I cancel my order?

A: Yes, before cutting begins you can cancel and receive a 50% refund of your deposit. Once cutting has started, deposits are non-refundable.

Q: Do you deliver?

A: Yes, delivery is available within Lagos for a small fee based on distance. Collection from our workshop is always free.

Q: Do you do bulk/uniform orders?

A: Yes, we offer discounted rates for uniform or matching family outfits when ordering 10 pieces or more of the same design.

Q: How do I start an order?

A: Reach out to us to book a consultation and measurement session, then pay your 50% deposit to get started.
